Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United State (Title 17, United States code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of the specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." if a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By signing this form I agree to assume all responsibility for compliance with the copyright laws and to hold harmless The University of Texas at Dallas, its agents, and employees for any legal action which amy arise as a result of this transaction.
